Contentions of Western Union Telegram Company in All Points.

A DEFEAT FOR THE PLAINTIFFS.

A special to the Courier-Journal from St. Louis says: Judge Rogers in the United States Circuit Court Monday handed down an opinion sustaining the demurrer of the Western Union Telegraph Company in the labor injunction case of Boyer et al. against that company. In the written opinion Judge Rogers maintains every point urged by Attorney Elenions Smith, representing the defendant company, holding that the company has the absolute right to dismiss employees because they belong to the union, or for any other reason; that there can be no conspiracy to do a lawful act; that the so-called blacklist may be maintained and given out for the use of others.

ORIGIN OF THE SUIT.

The suit resulted from a bill filed by Telegraphic Operator Arthur Boyer and others, alleging they were members of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America, Local Lodge No. 3, of St. Louis, and that they had been discharged from the service of the Western Union Telegraph Company solely because they belonged to the union; that it was the intention of the Western Union Company to discharge employees solely because they belong to the union, and that a conspiracy existed between the St. Louis officers of the Western Union Company to discharge all employees belonging to the union and to break it up; that the Western Union maintains a list, so-called "a blacklist," on which has been placed the names of the members of the union discharged, and that this is furnished to others and thereby those blacklisted have been prevented from obtaining other employment.

The bill sought to prevent the Western Union Company from discharging any employee because of his being a member of the union. Judge Rogers held that the Western Union Company had the absolute right to discharge employees not having contractual relations with the company, for any cause or without cause; that the company had the right to maintain a list on which might be placed the name of a discharged employee and the cause of discharge, and this list might be given others, provided its contents were truthful and its circulation honest; that as the bill alleged, the union was formed for moral and proper purposes, there should exist no objection upon the part of an employee to have his discharge based upon the mere fact that he was a member of such an order.

Railroad Flinging Prohibited.

(Terre Haute Telegram to the New York Sun.)

A bulletin prohibiting flinging has been posted on the Terre Haute division of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois. The bulletin reads:

"Complaint has been made that some of our trainmen, especially some of those employed on the Terre Haute division locals, are in the habit of flinging with the ladies residing along our tracks at Wet Mound and Hillsdale. The offenders are liable to get themselves into serious trouble if the practice is continued. A word to the wise is sufficient."

JUDGE L. B. HALL

Dies Suddenly of Heart Disease at His Near Seclusion—Was County Judge Twenty-four Years.

Judge L. B. Hall, one of the most prominent citizens in Webster county and this end of the state, dropped dead early Friday morning while at work on his Deer creek farm, about half way between Sebree and Slaughter. Heart disease is supposed to have been the cause of his death. He had been in good health and no one had heard him complain of feeling ill in the least.

Judge Hall for twenty-four years served continuously as county judge of Webster county and at the close of his sixth term recently retired from active life. At the time of his death he was still a resident of Dixon but since his retirement from office much of his time was spent on the farm. He was sixty-five years old and leaves a wife and several children. He had been a member of the Methodist church for many years. The last day rites were held at Dixon Saturday afternoon and the funeral was attended by one of the largest crowds ever seen in Dixon.

He Needs No Pity.

"Don't pity the country editor. He is as contented as a cow puffed up by eating too many rose geraniums. Pray for the spindle-shanked gazabo that is living the strenuous life in the metropolis. He needs it. Don't lose any sleep over the man who edits your home paper. He may not know a panegyric from a misfit formula for making apple butter, but he knows a hypocrite when he sees one and dare call him so to his face. He probably eats with his knife and wears shirts with holes in 'em, but no domineering managing editor can make him eat dirt. He is not to the manner born, neither has he an escutcheon embroidered on his linen, but he has wiped his aquiline nose on the floor sack of civilization and kicked his boots from the frozen floor of a farmer's kitchen and in the slang of the present 'Has been up against it.' To be poked fun at by the city brother when his paper announces to the world in a flourish of long primer that St. Green's choicest bull calf choked itself to death on an ear of corn don't ruffle him at all, for he rests secure in the consciousness that it will please 'Si' and don't hurt the city chap."—Ex.

A Handy Question.

Joseph Chamberlain was delivering a political speech in Birmingham, England. The hall so packed that not another human being could have crowded in. The enthusiasm was tremendous, but suddenly a scowling man arose in the middle of the crowd.

"What did Mr. Gladstone say in 1872?" he howled.

"Shame!" "Put him out!" yelled the crowd.

Three sturdy men hurried the interrupter a few yards, and others helped hustle him to the street.

As he was picking himself up and brushing off the dust he grinned pleasantly at a man who had followed him from the hall and who asked him, "What did Mr. Gladstone say in 1872?"

"I don't know," he replied, "and I don't care. I had a terrible toothache, and I couldn't but my way through that crowd, thing to do was to get thrown out."

CRIPPLE CREEK

Operators Make Public Statement Showing Injustice of Strike Arbitrarily Ordered By Union Leaders.

OUTRAGE AGAINST BOTH EMPLOYERS AND EMPLOYED.

At the conclusion of an executive meeting of the mine owners and managers of the Cripple Creek district at the offices of the Bank of Victor, Colorado, the following statement was made public:

"A general strike has been called on the mines of the Cripple Creek district by the executive heads of the Western Federation of Miners. At the time the strike was called, and in fact, ever since the settlement of the labor difficulties of 1894, the most entire harmony and good will have prevailed between employers and the employed in this district. Wages and hours of labor have been satisfactory and according to union standards, and general labor conditions have been all that could be wished.

Notwithstanding all this, the heads of the Western Federation have seen fit to compel a cessation of all labor in the district, not because of any grievance of their own against the Cripple Creek operators, but for reasons entirely beyond our control. No more arbitrary and unjustified action mars the annals of organized labor, and we denounce it as an outrage against both employers and employed. The fact that there are no grievances to adjust, and no unsatisfactory conditions to remedy, leaves the mine operators but one alternative, and that alternative they propose to adopt fearlessly.

As fast as men can be secured our mining operations will be resumed under former conditions, preference being given to former employees, and all men applying for work will be protected to the last degree. In this effort to restore the happy conditions which have so long prevailed, we ask, and confidently count on, the co-operation and support of all our former employees who do not approve the methods adopted, as well as the business men of the district, who are equal sufferers with us.

In resumption of operations, preference will be given to former employees, as before stated, and those desiring to resume their old positions are requested to furnish their names to their respective mines at an early date."

Trials of a Fishing Trip.

John Long, of Madisonville, and his baker narrowly escaped death on Pond River. While a party of Earlinton and Madisonville fishermen were returning from Ramsey last Thursday night they attempted to cross on the submerged bridge over Pond River on account of the water being so low for the ferry boat to be used. When near this side of the river the hind wheel of the wagon floated off the bridge and it was impossible to get them on without the party of six men getting down in the water and lifting it off. After they did succeed in getting the hind wheel on the fore wheel and one of the mules fell off the bridge and it was while trying to rescue the animal that Mr. John Long and his brother were both knocked down in the water under the mule and wagon. The prompt assistance of the remainder of the party saved them and after several hours work in the dark they finally got the wagon safely over the bridge by taking the mule out and pulling the wagon by hand. Mr. J. Long, of this city, who was one of the party, says it was the most unsatisfactory mode of crossing Pond River he has ever experienced and he does not care to repeat it.

LAST FILE

Driven for Foundation of L. & N. Shops to Be Built in Louisville.

The last one of the 3,000 piles which form the basis for the shops to be erected in South Louisville by the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company at the cost of $2,000,000 was driven Saturday, putting the site in readiness for the ground work and superstructure. The contracts for erecting the steel buildings and other structures which will comprise the shops to be erected will be let immediately by R. Montfort, chief engineer, who has bids before him on the work.

The completion of the contract for driving the piles marks the first stage in the erection of the shops. The contract was held by George Lawrie, of Montgomery. The company which Mr. Lawrie represents brought to Louisville a piledriver, the hammer of which weighs 10,000 pounds, and the large piles on which the foundation for the massive steel work will rest were driven home rapidly and satisfactorily. The piles were sunk thirty feet in the ground, and the work was more difficult from the fact that much rock was in the composition of the soil. The foundation will be placed on top of the piles, and it will be impossible for the ground work of the buildings to become insecure from an uneven or unsteady basis.

RIOTS ON

Between Strikers and Non Union Men Near Wheeling—Several People Wounded.

A special from Wheeling, W. Va., to the Courier-Journal says: A clash of union and nonunion men in which 1,000 shots were fired and several men were injured took place early Sunday morning between 300 striking machinists and 25 nonunion men who had taken their places in the Riverside plant of the United States Steel Corporation. The battle was begun Saturday night. The machinists have been out on strike for several weeks, and the situation was becoming desperate for the corporation until it imported about twenty men to take the places of the strikers. The men have been assaulted from time to time, but the situation has not reached an alarming stage heretofore.

The strikers congregated about the boarding houses of the non-unionists last night, fully armed, and began an attack on the places. The houses were heavily barricaded and many volleys were fired into the structure.

Finally a well directed shot from within the house wounded one of the strikers and he was carried to a hospital. Clay Hoover, a spectator, was shot in the left knee. A number of other people who were in the building with the nonunionists received wounds. The rioting continued until 2 o'clock this morning, when it abated somewhat. The police were powerless to interfere, and reinforcements were requested. A fresh outbreak is feared at any moment.

At 10 o'clock tonight the strikers, who are lying in the hills, fired on Peter Silatek as he passed. He was seriously wounded. The strikers mistook him, thinking he was a spy.

It is a good thing lawyers reap their reward on earth as the majority of them will reap none in Heaven.

DENVER SURGEON

Has Record on Appendix—Dr. W. W. Grant First to Remove This Supposedly Useless Organ.

EARLINGTON SURGEON HAS ENVIABLE RECORD OF NUMBER OF SUCCESSFUL OPERATIONS.

By an investigation of the New York Sun the fact has developed that a Denver physician, Dr. W. W. Grant, was the first surgeon to attempt the operation for appendicitis. Dr. Grant's operation of cutting into the abdomen and removing the vermiform appendix was performed in Davenport, Ia., on Jan. 4, 1885. His patient also lived there at the time, but is now in Chicago.

Following closely on the achievement of Dr. Grant the New York surgeon, Dr. McBurney, performed the same operation in 1888. Dr. Morton, of Philadelphia, preceded the New York surgeon by almost a year.

Considerable discussion has of late been aroused as to who was the first to discover the importance of the appendix as a factor in disease and to remove the cause, and it is considered not only an honor to Denver but to American surgery than an American and a Denverite was the first.

Dr. C. L. Wheaton, of the Gross Medical college, in writing for the Colorado Medical Journal says: "It is recorded in the surgical history of appendicitis that W. W. Grant ligated the appendix Jan. 4, 1885. This is the first recorded operation. It should be a source of pride to every American physician to know that his countrymen have been leaders in this field of medicine and surgery."

Dr. E. A. Chatten, of Earlington, has been pre-eminent successful in numerous operations for appendicitis and other cavital operations. He has had some twenty odd such operations, some of the patients coming to him from a distance, and almost 100 per cent. have been successful. The doctor knows what it is as he has been on the operating table himself and has made a study of it in Chicago.

JNO. W. HEADLEY, JR.

Brings Suit Against the I. C. R. R. for $20,000—Charges False Arrest.

John W. Headley, Jr., entered suit yesterday against the Illinois Central Railroad Company and Edward Kiefer, the company's gatekeeper at Union depot, for $20,000 damages, says Tuesday's Courier-Journal. He charges the defendant, Kiefer, with having been responsible for his false arrest at Union depot May 12. He says that Kiefer, without cause, accused him of "buncoing people out of money and diamonds."

He states further that Kiefer pointed him out to Police Sergt. M. L. Sullivan, who arrested him as a suspected felon. The petition recites further that the plaintiff was released on bond and that on May 19 he was tried in the police court and acquitted. The plaintiff declares that he was rearrested in Louisville and that he has borne a good reputation.

Fire in Madisonville.

The grocery store of Buck & Co., of Madisonville, caught on fire Monday night and burned slowly for some time. It was thought several kegs of powder was stored in the rear of the store, where the fire originated, and the people were dilly about putting the fire out until one of the clerks arrived on the scene and informed them he had removed the powder up front. The fire was then soon extinguished and little damage was done. The loss was fully covered by insurance.

THE PRINTER.

What He Has Done and is Still Doing for the Human Race—World Could Not Do Without Him.

The recent convention of printers in Washington brought from the Post of that city the following tribute to the "pioneers of the army of human progress and emancipation," the men without whom there would be little intelligence in the country: "Without them the teachers of the ages would have taught in vain; the dreams of philosophers would have vanished with the tapers that burned for their meditations; Luther, Shakespeare, Goethe, Wesley, Swedenborg, Newton, Jenner, Stephenson and Rousseau would be unknown beyond a narrow and jealous circle; the Dark Ages would still brood over the human race, and ignorance and fear and superstition hold us in degrading bondage."

Men may write and write and men may think and think, but without the printer their thoughts would be of little value to the world. Among all the trades there is not one more honorable or important than that of the printer, the man who edges up the metallic messengers of thought with nimble fingers or who manipulates with dextrous hand the keyboard of that marvelous invention which continually excites intelligent wonder and admiration, the linotype, that monument to Otto Mergenthaler's genius which the wisest man should be proud to claim. The composing and press rooms of a great modern daily newspaper cease to be impressive to the thoughtful man, even though his days and nights may be spent therein. The world cannot do without the printer.

Pius X.

Giuseppe Sarto, Pope Pius X., is, at his age of 68, to be numbered rather among the younger than among the older members of the college of cardinals. It was at the same age, within two months, that Leo XIII., twenty-five years ago, ascended the throne of St. Peter.

While it does not follow that the new pope will have as long a reign as his predecessor, he has a strength and vigor which give promise of a long life, and it is probable that his pontificate will be a momentous one.

It is said that the power of the pope, stripped of temporal authority though he is, was never so great as today. The range of the problems that Pius will be called upon to solve reaches around the world; the influence that he will exercise extends far beyond the bounds of the communion of his followers. He must himself be influenced by the fact that he takes up his duties while the universal expressions of sympathy and good will that were everywhere felt for Leo are still fresh in his ears.

From cardinal patriarch of Venice to pontifex maximus is a great step. The Giuseppe Sarto of the old life spend all his hours among his people and his books, Charity, piety and study filled his round of activity. The administration of the great mechanism of Catholicism concerned him very little.

The Pope Pius of the new life must move to the opposite pole. Yet he will take with him those same qualities of prudence and wisdom, those same personal virtues, which he possessed as cardinal. And it is believed by those who know him best that his policies and his methods will steadily advance the interests of the church.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Suspected Murderer Arrested at Nortonville.

A man giving his name as Thos. Cook was here Monday and claimed to be a union miner from Coal Creek. He looked around making few enemies until he came in contact with Rufe Clark who gave him a paper to read containing valuable information which he was to appreciate and soon moved out of town. Cook was arrested at Nortonville by Roy Blanks as a suspected murderer from Mt. Vernon, Ill. The officers at that place were notified and came to Nortonville Wednesday morning. The prisoner proved to be the man wanted and was carried back to Illinois on 52 Wednesday. Cook is said to have killed his sister-in-law in the Illinois town and a reward of $100 was offered for arrest.

Pretty Eagle Dead.

A special from Owensboro to the Courier-Journal under date of Aug. 18 says: Chief Pretty Eagle a noted Indian chief of the Mohawk tribe died here at noon today. He had been predicting his death for a day or two and died from heart failure. His wife whom he recently married at Morganfield, Ky., was with him. Chief Pretty Eagle was well remembered by Earlington people operated extensively at this place about a year ago and had been fighting the rounds at the different fairs in charge of a tribe of full blood Indians. While Pretty Eagle was not cut out for a Sunday school superintendent he may have had some good traits successfully concealed from the public gaze and we trust his swift foot is now pursuing the elusive antelope in the all-van shades of the happy hunting grounds.

Who Has Learned?

Will the dear, long-suffering public ever learn wisdom and prudence and become provident? The long periods of zero-suffering to which a large portion of the public is subjected annually should teach a lesson, and the people should rise in their might and change the worn, old adage about hay to read:

Get Coal While.... The Sun Shines!

If those who do not live on a coal foundation had filled their coal bins and coal houses liberally in the warm weather, when coal and hauling is cheap and the roads good, and had not, like the grasshopper, fiddled the summer away without providing against the winter's rigors, they would not have had to dance and burn back fences for warmth during the cold snaps and coal shortages of the past few years, which all remember so well.

IN THE INTEREST OF THE

..Woman's Christian Temperance Union..

Edited by a White Ribboner.

At the whiskey election held at the town of White Plains precinct Saturday, the "drys" won the election. In the town the vote stood 23 for whiskey and 25 against, a victory for the anti-saloon people of two votes. In the precinct 72 voted "wet" and 89 "dry," a majority of 17 against the saloon. The fight was not a very bitter one and everything passed off quietly, considering the close vote.

Two saloons have been in operation at White Plains, one by Reynolds & Co., and the other by Robert Whitfield. The license of both will expire some time in December.

The world's progress during the past fifty years is truly remarkable. An invention is conceived but is scarcely put into a working model before an improvement is designed which largely supersedes the original. Discovery after discovery is made which promises to work wonders in our every day affairs.

Reforms may seem to move slowly, but they are sure. Prohibition is now gaining ground more rapidly than any other reform.

Appearances are that within twenty-five years it will be as much a disgrace for a preacher or a church member to vote so as to legalize and protect the saloon as it now is for either to get drunk, although even that was common fifty years ago.

The Bible states as plainly then as now, "The drunkard shall not inherit the kingdom of heaven," and the command then as now was, "Look not upon the wine when it is red," but preachers and church members "looked upon the wine," drank it and became drunk.

The Bible states now as plainly as it can twenty-five years hence that he who assists, or even teaches a false doctrine, is a partaker of his evil deeds, and that no one is to put a stumbling block or an occasion to fall in a brother's way, and yet we continue to vote into power the men and parties which teach and practice the false doctrine, of legalizing and protecting the saloon for a share in the profits; which men and parties also legalize and protect the worst "stumbling block and occasion to fall" (the saloon) which it is possible to put into a brother's way.

But within twenty-five years ministers will preach the truth more fully and practice what they preach, and church members will more nearly practice what they profess.

This is progress the world waits for. This is the reform that will bring national Prohibition and its enforcement. See 2 John 10:11.

If we took as much pains to keep the tender lambs as we do to convert the tough old wolves the latter would soon die of starvation.—Ram's Horn.

An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of "regulation" in dealing with the saloon.

If an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure, then let us abolish the making and selling of intoxicating beverages, and thus prevent the saloon from making drunkards of our boys, we will have no drunkards to cure.

Prohibition in Mississippi.

Prohibition has certainly proved a great and unlimited blessing to Mississippi. The present assessed valuation of the State is over $240,000,000, an increase of $60,000,000 in the past three years. Appropriations for educational purposes for 1902 amount to $1,757,900; as compared with 1899, they show an increase of $609,798. Bank deposits have increased from 92 to 101 per cent. In the past three years, while the surplus has more than quadrupled. A new million dollar state capitol is nearing completion, and Mississippi bonds are way above par.

FIRST "LYNCHING"

Was the Action of a Quaker Judge in the Revolutionary War.

It is curious how comparatively unimportant events in the careers of two upright and honest men have caused their names to be infamously perpetuated. Those names have not only become associated with certain lawless acts, but so universal is their use that they are now incorporated in all dictionaries of the English language as words, without even being qualified as slang.

The word "boycott," defined as a verb, signifying "to combine against by refusing to deal or associate with or purchase of," owes its origin to the fact that Captain Boycott, an inoffensive Irish land owner, was the first victim of a practice which has since become widespread, and the word "lynch," or lynch law, which according to the dictionary, means "the summary infliction of punishment by a self-appointed commission without trial at law," cruelly maligns the memory of Charles Lynch, a simple Quaker gentleman, who served his country well as a righteous judge, a brave soldier and an upright statesman.

In the year of 1780 Charles Lynch, of Bedford, Va., was colonel of militia for his county. The armies of General Phillips and the traitor Benedict Arnold were spreading terror throughout the colony, and Lord Cornwallis himself was approaching from Georgia: Encouraged by this situation, some Bedford Tories, headed Robert Cowan and Thomas Watts, entered into a conspiracy to upset the county organization and seize for the use of Cornwallis the stores which Lynch had collected for General Green's army in North Carolina.

Cowan and Watts had formerly been fellow justices on the bench with Lynch, who was just setting out with his regiment to oppose the British under Benedict Arnold. When the action of the two Virginians became known to him, he had them arrested for treason. They were carefully and deliberately tried, and Cowan, the ringleader, was sentenced to a year's imprisonment and a fine of $20,000. The passing of this sentence was the first "lynching" on record. Inasmuch as Judge Lynch and the county court clearly transcended their powers. The general court alone had jurisdiction in cases of treason. Though this action which though mild was undoubtedly arbitrary and unconstitutional. The name of Judge Lynch has been for generations associated with all manner of horrible deaths inflicted upon wrongdoers by infuriated mobs, and "lynch law" is regarded by many as the foulest blot upon our boasted civilization. Thus is the name of the Quaker judge perpetually calumniated.

After the Revolutionary War the act of Judge Lynch was legalized by special act of the Virginia legislature. Judge Lynch was born in 1736 at Chestnut Hill, his father's estate on the James river, where his brother afterward found the city of Lynchburg.—N. Y. Press.

Gun Club Shoot.

The Earlington Gun Club met Thursday for the first time in several weeks. The boys have been attending the fair and as there was shooting there did not meet at their usual meeting. However, they wanted to show the people they had not forgotten how to shoot and did, with the exception of little Hutton, who never shot over a trap before and is not a member of the club. The boys did some good shooting. Lee Oldham and Coy Morgan making perfect scores. When Oldham broke his 25th he jumped, some of the boys say, six feet high, threw his hat 20 and would have shot it to pieces had it not been for someone who informed him that Morgan had done the same thing and possibly it being the only hat he had, it would be best not to do it. Earlington has one of the best gun clubs in this part of the country. Thursday they made an average of over 80 percent, which is an excellent score for 15 shooters in a town of this size. Following is the score out of a possible 25 targets:

Lee Oldham.....	25
Coy Morgan.....	25
Dr. Chatten.....	23
W. G. Barter.....	22
Henry Bourland.....	21
Dr. Renfrow.....	21
W. A. Keown.....	20
Bob Stinebaugh.....	20
Thos. Peyton.....	20
Jas. Jigon.....	18
Cal Martin.....	17
Jno. X. Taylor.....	17
Sam Burton.....	15

James Jigon is improving fast. I haven't been long since Jim was in that 11 class. Now he is good for 18 or 19.

W. G. Barter will never be satisfied until he breaks 25 straight. Bill is always good for 22 or 23, but looks like he can't get the others.

Dr. Chatten says it is no trouble for him to get 22, but that he won't wear the medal any more.

Henry Bourland is getting to be a crack shot. We knew Henry was good for something.

Bob Stinebaugh says if he had got any straight birds he would have got all of his, too. Tough luck, Bob.

Jno. X. seemed to be mad because he only got 17. He ought to have been tickled to death at getting that many.

Cal Martin shoots well, but he doesn't hit often enough. See if you can't get 20 next time, Cal.

Look out for Doc next Thursday. Mr. Renfrow got after him again and you know what he did before.

TEN YEARS AGO

BLUE G. BARK.

The place is not the same, dear Bob. 'Twas ten short years ago; I saw many, many changes As we wandered to and fro.

The old court house has been torn down, Where for a hundred years Lawyers thundered eloquence That brought forth smiles and tears.

The depot, too, has been removed Across the railroad tracks; 'Twas there you and I began To be literary larks.

And old Gray John has left this world Of trouble, toil and woe, To mix with kindred spirits In regions down below.

But Sprouts still piles his trade, Not so as once before; He does not hook the funny tribe As he did in days of yore.

Bill Dock still carries U. S. mail; His step is not so sprightly now Nor his whistle quite so gay.

A brand new bank adorns the square, New dwellings in a row, Oh, no, it's nothing like the place I knew ten years ago.

The sweet-gum log that used to lie Underneath the spring, Is replaced by a poplar trunk—A useless modern thing.

The leaning birch where we carved our names Is dead and withered now, Like the one that stands at the "Lynchburg" grove.

Where the lovers exchanged their vow, Ten years, how swiftly time doth fly, On needless, rushing wing, I turn with restless longing And wonder what the next will bring.

The Death Penalty. A little thing sometimes results in death. Thus a mere scratch, insignificant cut or puny blow has paid the death penalty. It is wise to have Bucklen's Arnica Salve ever handy. MINING NOTES.

It is reported that the Crittenden Coal & Coke Co., of Marion, Ky., has been incorporated with a capital stock of $50,000 and has leased and will operate 900 acres of coal land near that place. The output is expected to be from 1,000 tons per day when the mines are fully developed.

J. F. McMillen, Jeff McMillen and Wm. Gill were seriously injured in a boiler explosion near Knoxville, Tenn., last Monday. They are the father and brother of Thomas McMillen, of this place. He received a message from them the day after the accident occurred, saying they would both recover.

Ernest Brinkley, who formerly worked for the St. Bernard Mining Company, is now an employee of the Earlington Iron Works. Ernest makes a good worker anywhere he is placed.

John Williams, colored, of No. 9, had the misfortune to break his leg one day last week by coal falling on it. He is getting along nicely.

Sam Magenheimer, a one time coal miner, has secured a position with the L. & N. and is now braving for that country.

It is war to the knife between the labor organizations through the country and the Los Angeles Times. It seems the Times has incurred the wrath of the organizations by printing statements favoring Mr. Parry and President Baer as opposed to the unions, and for this unpardonable offense it has brought upon its head the ire of labor leaders throughout the country. The unions have waged a vigorous war, directing their efforts chiefly among advertisers in different localities, urging them to cancel their contracts for advertising. It is stated that a few foreign advertisers who advertise patent medicines have acceded to the wish of the unions and canceled contracts, but the majority of the Times' advertisers refuse to comply with the foolish demands of the unions.

C. J. Norwood, State Mine Inspector for Kentucky, has submitted a statement of the accidents occurring in that state during the year 1902, which is as follows:

The total quantity of coal mined in the commercial, or shipping, mines of the state was 4,229,419 short tons. The total number of employees was 12,036, of whom 9,867 were inside, or underground; while 2,169 were outside, or surface workers. The number of fatal accidents for the year was as follows:

	No. employed	Per 1,000
Killed inside mines.....	17	1.783
Killed on surface.....	1	.461
Total.....	18	1.496

Tons coal mined per man killed inside.....578,201
Tons coal mined per man killed outside and out.....367,180
Of the deaths inside the mines, 11 were caused by falls of top; 1 by falls of side; 1 by premature blast; 1 by a blow from a trap door; while 3 were caused by asphyxiation of men returning too soon on powder smoke. The single outside accident was caused by a riding trip. Thus 97 per cent of the deaths were caused by falls of coal or rock.—Fuel.

Dick Brown the widower came into the mines to work on a certain day last week, pulled off his coat and hat and threw them across the room. Some one asked him if he was hurt, he said "No I am not because I am grand papa the second time and the worst has not been told." "Yesterday when I went to see my widow she concluded I was too old and gave me a ticket home it was no road trip ticket either.

Narrow Escape From Death at Empire. A special from Hopkinsville to the Louisville Times dated August 18th says:

George W. Lander and Ashton Meacham had a narrow escape from death at Empire today. They were crossing the L. & N. railroad track with a team of six mules hitched to a heavy road grader they were operating for the Empire Coal Company. An engine backed upon them in a cut and killed four of the mules. Lander was riding one of the mules that escaped and Meacham was operating the grader.

PHILIPPINE LABOR UNION
ALLIED WITH INSURGENTS.

President Sentenced to Prison for Six Months for Contempt.

A Manila cablegram says: Dominador Gomez, president of the Democratic Labor Union, has been found guilty of contempt of court and sentenced to imprisonment for six months. When the union was declared bankrupt some time ago upon investigation of its affairs by the government, a newspaper connected with it was suspended and placed in the hands of a receiver. Gomez took it upon himself to republish the paper and was promptly arrested upon the charge of contempt, for which he has just been sentenced. Gomez was arrested in May last upon a charge of embezzlement of funds from the labor union, the government charging that the money stolen was used to furnish arms and food to the insurgents of Rizal province. The union, which has a membership of 15,000, has always been closely allied with the national party, and is strongly in sympathy with the insurgents.

Nebraska.

Notwithstanding all that has been said, written and published on Nebraska, it still remains true that the great majority of the people in the East have an exceedingly erroneous idea of this Queen of the West. Those who go out there expecting to plunge into a desert of sagebrush and sand, almost as soon as they cross the Missouri river have a pleasant surprise, for there for them as their train whirled them swiftly along over the smooth steel rail toward Denver their eyes are greeted on all sides by a scene as beautiful as it is unexpected. Comfortable homes, fine farms, groves, orchards, garden pastures, herds of grazing cattle and winding streams are the features of the country that will greet the eye for nearly three hundred miles until the grazing country is reached.

In no part of the United States can there be found a soil more fertile, more easily worked, or that will give better returns for the labor expended than in Nebraska. On the high prairie the land is a rich black mold, ten to 30 inches deep, underlaid with a yellowish formation known as the loess and from 70 to 100 feet in depth. Whenever this has been brought to the surface, in digging wells and cellars, after short exposure it produces a plant growth equal to the surface soil. This underlies the whole of the state as far west as three hundred miles. In the valleys the soil is rich and black, found often more than ten feet in depth and underneath the same formation which cannot be exhausted by ages of cultivation. Mrs. M. Boyce.

Taken With Grains.

Wm. Kixner, a member of the bridge gang working near Littleport, was taken suddenly ill Thursday night with cramps and a kind of cholera. His case was so severe that he had to have the members of the crew to wait upon him and Mr. Gifford was called and consulted. He told them he had a medicine in the form of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy he thought would help him out and accordingly several doses were administered with the result that the fellow was able to be around next day. The incident speaks well for the value of Mr. Gifford's medicines.—Elkader, Iowa, Argus.

AGITATION AGAINST MILLER

Will Bring General Investigation. Government Printing Office Will Probably Be Equipped With Latest Machinery.

GREAT SAVING TO GOVERNMENT WILL BE MADE BY DISPLACEMENT OF PRIMITIVE METHODS.

(Washington correspondent of Chicago Record-Herald.)

That union labor over-reached itself in its attempt to oust W. A. Miller from his position as assistant foreman in the book-binding division of the government printing office now seems certain. Information is obtained from an authoritative source that Miller will remain in the employ of the government office in Washington, and that the controversy will result in the displacement of primitive methods and the installation of the latest improved machinery in all branches of the office. This means that typesetting machines will be used despite the protests of union labor.

Several charges filed against Miller subsequent to his dismissal and reinstatement by order of the President have been investigated by Public Printer Palmer and Secretary Cortelyou of the Department of Commerce and Labor, and have been found insufficient grounds for a second dismissal. In fact, it is said that the charges in nearly every particular were false. The only charge that stuck is the one that he was able to get more work out of the bookbinders than they were willing to perform. When this condition of affairs became apparent to Secretary Cortelyou he called Mr. Palmer in conference and they decided to ignore the remainder of the charges.

Agitation provoked by the campaign which union labor has carried on against Miller is responsible for a general investigation of the business policy of the government printing office. Secretary Cortelyou, it is said, is much dissatisfied with conditions there. The fact that it has been impossible to keep up with the work demanded of the office has led to a thorough inspection of all branches. Figures have been obtained concerning the saving to the government which would result from the use of typesetting machines. Secretary Cortelyou is convinced that they should be installed at once, and it is believed that a recommendation will be made to Congress for the necessary appropriation to put them in.

THURSDAY, AUG. 20, 1903.

A catalogue announcing the first Annual Fair to be held at the new grounds at Sebree, Ky., Sept. 22, 23, 24, 25 and 26th is out. It is gotten up in a neat attractive style. The premium list is extensive and some good premiums are offered. There have been many and varied causes given for securing divorces, but the latest from Bonnie Tillman's state takes the remnant of white goods from the shrubbery. A lady in that state has sued for a divorce on the grounds that her husband who had formerly been an inveterate smoker had discontinued the practice on account of extreme nervousness. She states in her petition that she is indignantly fond of the scent of burning tobacco and he has knowingly and wittingly deprived her of one of the chief pleasures in life.

The world loves a man with a cheery smile, the man with roses on his tongue, the man who although he sees your boy's dirty face makes mention of his bright eyes. Who notices you own shabby clothes, but praises your studious habits, the man who sees faults, but whose tongue is quick to praise and slow to blame. We all like to meet the man whose bright smile lights up our dreariness like a ray of sunshine on a gloomy day, whose very hand shake is an inspiration and whose "God bless you is sweeter than the music of the brown throated nightingale. There is an abundance of trouble in the world, but we need not increase it. There are numbers of people who die ahead of time, and there are living men who have crossed the river of Styx on several different occasions and they are unfortunately the ones who are least prepared to cross it in reality. If you know anything that will make the world better tell it, if on the other hand what you know would tend to lower the moral standard keep this knowledge to yourself. If you have faith preach it, if you have doubts bury them and do not mar the joy and brightness of some other soul by injecting these doubts in their lives.

WOULD NOT BE

AMISS IN KENTUCKY.

Under the caption, "Colorado Needs a Few," the Denver Post says:

Somewhere back in Missouri they have a sheriff named Whitlock who refused to allow a mob to hang one of the prisoners under his charge. "You're foolish, Whitt," argued the leader of the bloodthirsty crowd, who happened to be a personal friend. "The best people of the country are here, and your refusal will kill you politically."

"To hell with your best people!"

chased the doughty sheriff. "What do I care whether I am killed politically or not? I represent the law of a government that was established by the death of a damned sight better man than any of us, and if I die, politically or any other way, I'll die in a good company."

Not the best of grammar, nor quite elegantly expressed, but the sentiment could hardly be improved upon. Men who are not afraid to die politically are rather scarce.

A sheriff who would rather be in good company than dead than in questionable company alive would attract attention almost anywhere.

It is somewhat difficult at times to hold in view the vital fact that governments are not founded upon passion and that they cannot be maintained by mob rule, however meritorious the object of such irresponsible action.

Yet these are the most essential principles in the safeguarding of every civilized society. We must not ignore them if we are to invite certain disaster.

To permit their violation is to assist in undoing the good work for which thousands of men better than we sacrificed their lives.

To defend them to the death—either morally or physically—is to die in a good company."

All honor to the Whitlocks! May their tribe increase and replenish a wasted earth!

Kentucky is looking up but, like other States north and south, would be better off with a few such sheriffs as this one from Missouri.

POINTS ABOUT PEOPLE.

Dr. Debra Breckinridge, of the Lexington Herald, with his wife, were at Denver last week with Mrs. Breckinridge's mother, who is ill in health. Mr. and Mrs. Breckinridge went on to Glenwood Springs, the depot at Colorado's attractive points, expecting to return early this week, when Mr. Breckinridge would return home, Mrs. Breckinridge remaining at Denver for a time with her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Adlai E. Stevenson, of Bloomington, Ill., who were at Waukegan, Wis., for some weeks this summer, have returned home the ex-vicer president who began life in Christian county, Kentucky as a boy, retains much of his old-time physical vigor. He has a great memory for people and incidents throughout many sections of the country visited by him in past campaigns and is a marvelously good story teller. Mr. Stevenson's manner is that of the courtly gentleman of the old school. The neighborhood in which he spent his boyhood in Christian county was that of what is now known as Herndon, then known as Blue Water. Near the springs was the old school house and to this spring, in the campaign of 1892, Mr. Stevenson and Col. Joe F. Ford went and sat down and talked over their early school-boy experiences. Mr. Stevenson remembers vividly Hon. Polk Lafoon, Hon. Hunter Wood and other of the older prominent men of Hopkins and Christian counties and promises, if possible, to be with Kentuckians on "Kentucky Day" at the St. Louis Exposition next year.

Mrs. Stevenson, who was before her marriage, a blue grass belle, is beautiful, white haired, sweet in spirit and young in her sixties.

A Story About General Clay.

The late General Cassius M. Clay was a graduate of Yale, a member of the class of 1822. Sometimes in the would tell of a rebuke that he once gave to an impudent classmate. He was sitting in his room, writing a letter to a young girl. Three or four of his friends were with him. One youth, who pretended to be absorbed in a book, was slyly reading the somewhat ardent sentences that flowed from the Kentucky student's pen. Clay suddenly became aware of this impropriety, but he made no sign. Only he wrote in his letter:

Boys who make Money after School Hours

"I would be more frank than I am—I would say more than this—but there is an impediment cast looking over my shoulder, reading every word I write."

The youth referred to in that way leaped to his feet.

"Clay," he said, "you are a liar. I haven't been looking over your shoulder, and I haven't read a syllable of your infernal letter." (Chicago Exchange.)

SPECIAL RAILROAD EDITION.

The Bee Will Issue Illustrated Number

Devoted to Henderson Division

L. & N.

INTERESTING HISTORIC DATA WILL BE PUBLISHED FOR FIRST TIME.

THE BEE'S special railroad edition will be one of the best railroad papers ever issued in Kentucky. In addition to the personal write-ups of the railroad men of the Henderson Division and their half-tone cuts, it will contain views of important railroad buildings along the line, such as the new passenger station at Evansville, the round-houses at Howell and Earlinton, the depot at Earlinton and other places and views of passenger and freight trains. A complete history of the Henderson Division from the time it was surveyed up to the present time, the changes it has undergone and a great deal of interesting railroad data will be given in this edition.

A great many of the men on the division have already subscribed for copies of the special railroad edition and others are subscribing every day. We wish to make this a thoroughly creditable special edition of THE BEE and want the co-operation of every railroad man on the Henderson Division. It is gotten up in their interest and benefit, and consequently should receive their liberal patronage.

W. F. Sheridan, our recent train master and before he left for Mexico that a railroad paper of this character was worth $5 to any H. D. railroad man now and in the course of time would be worth $20, on account of the personal write-ups of the men if nothing else.

All of the dispatchers, including the chief, several conductors, engineers, firemen and brakemen have already signed contracts for copies of the edition. Foreman E. H. O'Brien is a subscriber, as is also Mr. Walsh and Supt. Jno. W. Logsdon, of Evansville. We want every employee of the H. D. to get this edition of THE BEE and feel sure it is well worth the price asked.

A Women's Complexion.

It is rank foolishness to attempt to remove blemishes or greasiness of the skin by the use of cosmetics, or "local" treatment, as advocated by the "beautician doctors." The only safe and sure way that a woman can improve her complexion is by purifying and enriching the blood, which can only be accomplished by keeping the liver healthy and active. The liver is the seat of disease and blood pollution. Green's August Flower acts directly on the liver, cleanses and enriches the blood, purifies the complexion. It also cures constipation, biliousness, nervousness, and induces refreshing sleep. A single bottle of August Flower has been known to cure the most pronounced and distressing cases of dyspepsia and indigestion. New trial size bottle, 35 cents; regular size, 75 cents. At all druggists.

Like a Comet

This famous remedy for the stomach and bowels which is able to do for itself, even if but slightly disordered or overburdened.

Kodol supplies the natural juices of digestion and flows the work of the stomach, relieving the nervous tension, while the inflamed mucous membranes of the organ are allowed to rest and heal. It cures indigestion, flatulence, palpitation of the heart, nervous dyspepsia, all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying and strengthening the glands, membranes of the stomach and digestive organs.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical profession. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for full particulars. Address F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.

Sold by all druggists.
Hall's Family Pills are the best.

It's hoping against hope when a woman pulls down a folding bed, and then looks under it for the proverbial man.

End of Bitter Fight.

"Two physicians had a long and stubborn fight with an abscess on my right lung," writes J. E. Hugeney, of DuPont, Ga. "and gave me up. Everybody thought my time had come. As a last resort I tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. The benefit I received was striking and I was on my feet in a few days. Now I've entirely regained my health." It conquers Croup, Colds and Throat and Lung troubles. Guaranteed by St. Bernard Drug Store, Price 50c and $1. Trial bottles free.

In the language of the immortal William Sprague, "an extravagant woman is bad enough, but two will drive a man to drink or suicide."

Potent Pill Pleasure.

The pills that are potent in their action and pleasant in effect are Dr. Williams' Little Early Risers. W. S. Philpot, Albany, Ga., says: "During a violent attack I took one. Small as it was it did me more good than calomel, blue mass or any other pill I ever took and at the same time it affected me pleasantly. Little Early Risers are certainly an ideal pill."

Sold by John K. Taylor.

The Parquet Fishing Club are camping at the celebrated Parquet Springs near Shepherdsville this week.

Foley's Honey and Tar for children, safe, sure. No opiates.

Tutt's Pills

FOR TORPID LIVER.

A torpid liver deranges the whole system, and produces
SICK HEADACHE, DYSPEPSIA, COSTIVENESS, RHEUMATISM, Sallow Skin and Piles.
There is no better remedy for these common ailments than TUTT'S LIVER PILLS. A trial will prove.
Take No Substitute.

The devil probably told Eve that apples were good for the complexion, but a woman is never really known by anybody.

A man is known by his associates, but a woman is never really known by anybody.

Save the Children.

Ninety-nine out of every one hundred diseases that children have are due to disorders of the stomach, and these disorders are all caused by indigestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is just as good for children as it is for adults. Children thrive on it. By using one bottle of Kodol he is encouraged their growth and development. Mrs. Henry Carter, 706 Central St., Nashville, Tenn., says: "My little boy is now three years old and has been suffering from indigestion ever since he was born. I have had the best doctors in Nashville, but failed to do him any good. After using one bottle of Kodol he is a well baby. I recommend it to all sufferers. Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet and strong."

Sold by Jno. K. Taylor.

A woman may have a face like an open book, yet it is hard for a man to read between the lines.

Many persons in this country are suffering from kidney complaints which could avoid fatal results by using Foley's Kidney Cure.
Said by Jno. K. Taylor.

There is no such thing as a woman's idle curiosity; it works night and day.

You Know What You are Taking
When you take Grove's Tasteless Chili Tonic, because the formula is plainly printed on every bottle showing that it is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. No cure, no pay.

A woman should never cease praying for her husband. Her prayers may not be effective, but it will keep her out of mischief.

"I had diabetes in its worst form," writes Mrs. Lee of Dunsmuir, Ind. "I tried eight physicians without relief. Only three bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure made me a well man."
Said by Jno. K. Taylor.

There must be a woman in the moon instead of a man, otherwise it wouldn't change so often.

A scientific combination of the essential constituents of PRIME BEEF and PURE OLD MALT.
Sold by Jno. K. Taylor.

When you go to buy Witch Hazel look for the name DeWitt's on every box. The pure, unadulterated Witch Hazel is used in making DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, which is the best salve in the world for cuts, burns, bruises, boils, eczema and piles. The popularity of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, due to its many cures, has caused numerous worthless counterfeits to be placed on the market. The genuine bears the name of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.
Said by Jno. K. Taylor.

A divorced woman is entitled to the name of Widow, but she can't keep off the grass.

PARKER'S HAIR REMOVER is the best for removing hair from the face, neck, arms, legs, etc. It is sold by all druggists.

Women are always included when speaking of mankind; for man embraces women.

Quick Relief for Asthma Sufferers.
Foley's Honey and Tar affords immediate relief to asthma sufferers in the worst stages and it taken in time it affected me pleasantly. Little Early Risers are certainly an ideal pill.
Said by Jno. K. Taylor.

MADISONVILLE PEOPLE

Enjoy Outing at Loch Mary Monday Night.

Misses Helen and Dave Hendricks and Mr. Morton McPherson gave a five o'clock tea followed by a dance at the pavilion at Loch Mary, Monday afternoon complimentary to Messrs. William, Houston and Archibald Young, of Shelbyville, who are the guests of Mr. McPherson of Madisonville. It was a charming affair and was most enjoyed by the following company: Misses Allen and Neveline Morton, Ida Speed, Elizabeth Long, Genoa Whittinghill, Mattie Mae Alexander, Elizabeth Given, Helen and David Hendricks, Virginia Nunn, of Frankfort; Ruth Payne, of Pembroke; Edith Waller, of Hopkinsville; and Elizabeth Victory, Messrs. Young, McPherson, Morton, Jennings, Morton, Roy, of Moscow, and Dr. Johnson. The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Osburn, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Morton and Mr. J. B. Atkinson.

A GREAT OFFER.

Louisville Times and Weekly Courier—Journal Six Months, and The Bee—One Year For Only $2.00.

The Louisville Times and Weekly Courier-Journal are making an unprecedented campaign subscription offer—both papers six months for $1; to separate addresses if desired. As the regular price of The Times for six months is $8 and that of the Courier-Journal is $6, this offer gives $8.50 worth of newspapers for a dollar bill, which ought to put the two papers in every home in Kentucky.

And to show that The Bee can be as liberal and enterprising, we have joined in the combination and will offer The Bee for a year, along with the other two for six months, for $2; this giving $4.50 for $2.00. All to a different address, as desired. Now is the time to subscribe. All subscriptions must be sent to this office.

Lincoln's famous private car will be exhibited in the Transportation building at the World's Fair.

A Physician Healed.
Dr. Geo. Ewing, a practicing physician of Smith's Grove, Ky., for over thirty years, writes his personal experience with Foley's Kidney Cure: "For years I had been greatly bothered with kidney and bladder trouble and enlarged prostate gland. I used everything known to the profession without getting relief, until I procured a bottle of Foley's Kidney Cure. After taking three bottles I was entirely relieved and cured. I heartily recommend its use to all physicians for such troubles. I have prescribed it in hundred of cases with the most perfect success."
Said by Jno. K. Taylor.

The Bullitt county fair is on at Shepherdsville this week and the citizens of Bullitt have gathered a very creditable exhibit. This fair is only three years old and has gained in numbers and interest each year.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.
Take Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove, manufacturer, on each box, $6.

Keep an eye on the silent female. When a woman doesn't want to monopolize the conversation, there is some deep, dark reason for it.

CHEAP LANDS
For Homeseekers and Colonies.

The country along the Cotton Belt Route in Southeast Missouri, Arkansas, Northwest Louisiana and Texas offers the greatest opportunities for Homeseekers. Mild climate, good water, cheap building materials, abundance of fuel, and soil that will often in a single season yield enough to pay for the ground. Land can be bought as cheap as $2.50 an acre, prairie land at $4 and $5 per acre, bottom land at $5 and $6 per acre, improved or partly cleared land at $10 and $15 per acre. Some fine opportunities for colonies—tracts of 200 to 5,000 acres at $4 to $10 per acre—big money in this for a good organizer. Fruit and truck lands in the famous peach and tomato belt of East Texas. For more information, write us for information about cheap rates, excursion dates, also literature descriptive of the country and let us help you find a home that will cost you no more than the rental you are now paying.

PULITZER FOUNDS SCHOOL

Gives $2,000,000 to Endow a School of Journalism.

New York, Aug. 17.—Joseph Pulitzer has provided the sum of $2,000,000 to establish a school of journalism at Columbia university, this city. A new building for the school will be erected on Morningside heights at a cost

An important feature of the organization of this school will be an advisory board, nominated by the donors, which will aid in devising a plan and course of instruction. Seven members of this advisory board have already been named, and, with others to be selected, will be nominated to the trustees of Columbia university at the meeting in October. They are: Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia university, ex-officio; Hon. Whitelaw Reid; Hon. John Hay, secretary of state; Hon. St. Clair McKelway; Hon. Andrew D. White, Victor F. Lawson.

Harvard university.

By turning to enter upon the career of Journalism will find a feasible here courses of study that will be for this profession, be equivalent to what other professional schools supply for other professions, while young men already engaged upon the newspaper will find advancement, themselves more rapidly by the cultivation of their aptitude may find in these courses valuable assistance. It is believed that this will be an advantage to them immediately and ultimately to the press of the whole country.

BANK CASHIER CONFESSES:

Divorced President, Eldest Son, Divorced

New York, Aug. 17.—Cashier Enoc L. Cowart of the suspended National City national bank, at Redbank, N. J., has confessed to Bank Examiner W. A. Mason, who is acting as receiver, that he embezzled $40,000 of the bank's funds.

Cowart was prevailed upon to make confession and restitution by Receiver Mason, who told him to do so would go a long way in mitigating his punishment.

Cowart said he had diverted the funds first to pay dividends on the bank's stock in order to keep up the price, and later he began taking money to keep up the extravagant style of living he indulged in at Asbury Park.

where he mingled with a fast set and lived at an extravagant pace, which his salary did not justify. No inkling of his double life was ever had by his business associates in Redbank.

Desperate efforts were made to keep the Navesink national bank open, but a New York bank offered assistance, but the run of depositors was too great, so it was forced to close its doors.

LOCOMOTIVE BLASTS

J. M. Scott, chief dispatcher of the first division at Louisville, says the first division is ahead of all other divisions in everything but overtime and he does not care to be ahead on that.

J. W. Moore, of Louisville, who has been working for the L. & N. as operator for a number of years, has been off some time now on account of poor health, but is improving now and will no doubt be able to resume duty in a few weeks.

The double track on the First division now extends from Louisville to Lebanon Junction. No wonder the First division has less overtime than the Henderson division. If the double track for that distance was on the Henderson division there would be no such thing as overtime on the division.

Beginning with next week THE BEE will in addition to the Henderson and St. Louis division news, give the Memphis Line and First division happenings.

On request of several of the railroad men who wish to be in the Special Railroad Edition of THE BEE and have not had an opportunity to have photos made we have decided to extend the limit for photos to Sept. 1st and expect photos to be in this office by that time.

Never in the history of the L. & N. R. R. has business all over the system been as heavy as it is at the present time.

Why does Miss Money talk and talk

And of stopping make no mention?
No doubt it is because she has Mr. World's whole attention. Lenard Carson of the Howell Store Room spent the Sunday at West Franklin, Ind., with relatives.

The engagement is announced of Miss Electra Hawkins, the only daughter of former Mayor and Mrs. A. C. Hankins, of Evansville, to Clifton Hurd of Memphis, Tenn. The wedding will take place Wednesday September 9th. Mr. Hurd is connected with the L. & N. ticket office, Union Station Memphis.

Edgar Booker, helper at Bakera, who was obliged to go to Franklin, Ky., on account of ill health, has recovered sufficient to return to his duties at the Hill.

Married—J. D. Raede to Miss Mellie Viola Yearwood of Evansville. Mr. Raede is a fireman on the St. Louis Division.

W. C. Walsh, master mechanic of the Southern Indiana at Bedford, was the guest of his father, Thomas Walsh, Wednesday.

Pink Willis, the little son of Engineer G. M. Willis, went to Paris, Tenn., Monday with his aunt.

Evansville was turned over to excursionists Sunday, the great er part of whom were brought in over the L. & N. from St. Louis.

The business on the Shawnee-town Branch has increased to such an extent that Engineer Wellington Newton is not able to stand up under the strain and has asked to be relieved from one to two days each week, which was granted him.

The boom of the Guthrie coal hoist gave away last Saturday, having to be sent to the shops for repairs, considerably handicapping the coaling of engines at Guthrie.

Fireman John Deshler went to Owensboro this week.

F. H. Koehne, chief car inspector at Howell, and wife and daughter have gone to St. Louis, Mo. on a visit.

M. O. Connel and wife of Earlinton are visiting at Lewisburg, Ky.

W. A. Russell has been appointed chief clerk to General Passenger Agent Stone of the L. & N., and J. H. Settle, now assistant city ticket agent at Louisville has been appointed city ticket agent to succeed Mr. Russell.

CHRONICLES.

1. Now it came to pass in those days when the Beekham ruled over that land which abounded in blood and darkness that there dwelt in the city of Earlington a certain patriarch, one John, who is also called the Franklin.

2. And the same John was of the tribe of Hopkins, an upright man who feared God and eschewed evil. He and his household gave alms and offered sacrifice daily.

3. For from their youth up had they walked in the way of the Pre-foreordination Baptist, believing with them that whatsoever is to be will be, even though it should never come to pass.

4. Now when the seventh month was fully come the patriarch spoke unto Emily, his wife, after this manner, saying:

5. Hearken unto my voice, O Emily, the wife of the patriarch, and give thou ear unto the things which I shall utter, for I have a revelation to make unto thee.

6. Wot ye not that we be old and not young, having lived out the three score and ten appointed unto man, yea, verily, we be not spring chickens.

7. And yet a little while longer and we, even we, will cross the last river and will sit on front seats twanging harps of gold with those who have "went down into and came up out of the water."

8. And Emily, the wife of the patriarch, answered and said: Yea, my lord, all the things thou sayest is worded of me.

9. Then John, the patriarch, spake furthermore, saying: Wist ye not, O Emily, wife of the patriarch, that each day when the eleventh hour is fully come that a great chariot which wise men have builded, passeth through this city upon a road of iron.

10. Moreover the flight of this chariot is swifter than the flight of an eagle and it belches forth fire and brimstone.

11. And much people, hundreds, yea, even thousands journey upon this chariot unto distant cities in hot little while as one would visit a neighbor who is a night's journey.

12. And the wife of the patriarch answered and said: Yea, my lord, all these things I wist.

13. Then the patriarch spake again, saying: Lend then me thine ear, O Emily. When the first day of the eighth month is come we will array ourselves in purple and fine linen and get on the great chariot and journey unto the land of the Hoosier and visit those who be related unto us.

14. And these sayings pleased Emily, the wife of the patriarch, and straightway she made preparations to go unto a distant country.

15. And when the first day of the eighth month was come she arose while it was yet early and slew a fowl and dressed it. She also kneaded dough and had it upon the hearth and they did eat.

16. Then the patriarch arose and sought a razor and mowed his countenance until his face was smooth as an onion having been peeled.

17. He also put oil upon his hair and wrought upon his head with combs and brushes until a fly could scarce stand thereon.

18. And his sandals he coated with Mason's Charlatan polish until one could look upon them and behold his face sufficient to shave.

19. And the same John's raiment was purple and fine linen and he had a leathern girdle about his loins and an upright collar encompassed his neck roundabout.

20. And Emily, the wife of the patriarch, was arrayed as the Queen of Sheba, in silken apparel with rings upon her fingers and ringlets and braids within her hair and her jewelry was gold and precious stones.

21. And it came to pass when the eleventh hour was nearly come the patriarch and Emily went forth to meet the great chariot.

22. And when they were come unto that street which is called Straight the people marvelled and were greatly astonished, inasmuch that their eyes hunged out on stems, and some said: Behold a bridegroom cometh.

23. And others mocked these, saying: Ye have not sufficient sense to place eggs beneath a goose that is wont to set. Doeth not even the jay birds in Texas wot that this is but the patriarch and Emily, his wife, and yet ye say: Behold a bridegroom cometh.

24. Now it came to pass that the patriarch and Emily drew nigh and entered within the great chariot and in a short space of time they reached the land of the Hoosier, even that city which is called Linton.

25. Now be it known that the same Linton is a city of the non-recessed, who walk after the manner of John the Mitchell, and Jim the Wood who fear not God neither regard they man, if he be from Hopkins county.

26. And as a cat hateth salt even so do they abominate all who walk after the mine worker, accounting them as heathen and strangers and scabby even as Lazarus.

27. It came to pass when it was known in the city that a patriarch and his wife from Earlington abode therein that their wrath waxed to a wedding heat.

28. And they arose as one man and went unto the house wherein the patriarch abode and called for him, saying: Art not thou he that is called Franklin, and he said: Yea, I am he.

29. Then they gnashed on him with their teeth, saying: Verily art thou an ancient scab and one of old J. B. Bowers and with such we have neither part nor lot.

30. Therefore, we say unto thee: Arise, and pat thou thine dad blasted feet out of this town ere the sun goeth down, or thine internal hide will scarce contain these shucks which men are wont to glean from ears of corn.

31. Now, when he heard these things, the heart of the patriarch was troubled, for he is a man of peace and not of war. So he went within the house and hark the tidings unto Emily, his wife, and their married daughter, with whom they sojourned.

32. And even as he yet spake there came unto him certain unities, who in days ago dwelt within the land of Kentucky, and were known unto the patriarch. Among them were Harland the Rich and the Woodall, William the Smithite, also Lee and Bill the Stultifies, and they spake angrily after this manner.

33. What doest thou in this goodly land of the Hoosier is as horses' ass? Arise, and get ye quickly into thine own city, or by the great horn spoon, we will spit thy dad blasted hide with a hickory, if so be that the sun goes down on our wrath and ye yet remain.

34. Now, when she heard those words the daughter of the patriarch cried out in anger, and she laid hold of a revolver and snapped it within the face of he that spake, and he fled, greatly affrighted lest he be gathered unto his fathers.

35. Now, Emily, the wife of the patriarch, hath a tongue as a ready writer, and her temper is as horses' ass when they are molested with a pole. Her words are many, even as Webster's Unabridged. When she heard these sayings, she became hot as a pepper mill in Hades, and she cried unto them with a loud voice, saying:

36. Go to, ye contemptible, cowardly spawn of Satan, who have so little principle in ye that ye would beat a patriarch who is already sufficiently cowed by this grand father.

37. Ye have not enough manhood in ye to endow a single scare-crow. Yea, ye would corrupt the morality of a sheep killing, such egg, yaller bound, ye would allow yeller to associate with him," and with many words of wrath did she rail on them, telling them that she would return unto her own land, where all were free and patriarchs not beaten of snakes.

38. The selfsame hour the patriarch gat he him a chariot and departed at night to a city sixteen miles away, that he might meet the great chariot, and the firmament was overcast with clouds, and a mighty wind arose, the lightning blazed from the East unto the West and the thunder rolled as great chariot wheels through the courts of Heaven.

39. And the wife of the patriarch strove to cheer him, saying: Fear not the tempest, my lord, for the God of our fathers hath dominion over it but the Old Serpent, even the devil, hath dominion over the untiles. Let us therefore flee, even in this tempest from the land of the Hoosier.

40. And the patriarch answered her, saying: Thou sayest truly, and it pleases our God to hold judgment in the land of the Hoosier then we must perforce return once more except we get a change of venue, and we will fervently pray that the next session we'll be held southward of the Ohio river, that we may be forever spared entering the land of the Hoosier and the untily.

"KENTUCKY DAY."

World's Fair Officials Want to Give One Day Over to The Bluegrass State.

What was the greatest day in Kentucky's history?

The officials of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition to be held in St. Louis next year want to set aside one day to be known as "Kentucky Day" and have invited the Kentucky Exhibit Association, which is raising the funds by private subscription—the legislature having failed to make an appropriation—for the State Building and display of products and resources, to fix the date.

The Association is anxious to name a day that will be surrounded by association which appeal to a majority of Kentuckians and calls on every citizen interested to make a suggestion. All communications on the subject should be addressed to Secretary R. E. Hughes, Louisville. Exercises in keeping with the occasion will be conducted at the Kentucky Building at the World's Fair on whatever day is named as "Kentucky Day." The Exhibit Association is to be influenced by the opinion of a majority of Kentuckians in the matter and will appreciate and welcome all suggestions.

Points in Fashionable Millinery.

The high crown remains a popular style in straw as well as in lace, chiffon and tulle. In almost every instance the brim is wide all around, with a slight flare off the face. Plumes and tips offer manifold possibilities in the adornment of high-crowned hats. The revival of the little bonnet with strings will undoubtedly become more general as the season advances. Gossamer materials and silver braids are used to fashion them, and ostrich tips, lace and sequins form the decoration with the stings usually of velvet ribbon. The youthful lace looks especially well under a flat plateau of the new sailor with very low crown and rather wide rim, though either shape may be varied by rolling back the brim on one or both sides or by rising it with a bandeau. For those who have tired of struts there are the smartest hats in white, gray or fawn felt, with a simple ribbon or scarf trimming. Velvet ribbon in widths varying from half an inch to two inches is much in demand in the millinery world. The broad widths are used to form the quillings that encircle the low crowns of the new sailors, as well as for bows and rosettes. Both fur and flowers are to be popular decorations for the early Autumn hat, and in the reds, deep greens and serene brown shades they are particularly seasonable. Birds, too, are used and are admirably suited to the present style of trimming.—From The Delineator for September.

To You.

Young man, you can make a hit—be IT. It's up to you to do. What were we made for and fed and prayed for. So don't sit down and frown. And groan and moan. And wait—and rail at Fate—And speak of a clique That prevents even. From coming this way. A sure way To invite disaster which comes the faster. If you beckon to it—for then you woe it. Just say, "I will do better than Bill Or Ned or Fred or Ted." As the case may be. Because, you see, A thing's half done that's well begun. There's something you can do In a way to pay. Don't whine or grunt, but do your stunt. And after a while you'll smile And say, "I may Be happy yet." You bet! —Saturday Evening Post.

German Syrup.

We want to impress on our readers that Beecher's German Syrup is positively the only preparation on the market today that does relieve the most distressing coughs, colds and consumption. It contains the specific, such as pure tar, extracts of gums, etc., which have been so highly endorsed for the cure of coughs, colds and consumption by the great medical press. The consumptive, whether his disease is in the throat or lungs, must have rest at night, and be free from the strain of dry and racking cough in the morning. The diseased parts want rest, healing and soothing treatment, and the patient needs fresh air, good food, etc. German Syrup gives the patient the best preparation in the morning with speedy and permanent relief. Small bottles, 15 cents; regular size, containing nearly four times as much, 75 cents. At all druggists.

EVERYBODY'S GOING

To the State Fair at Owensboro Next Month

AND SEE THE GREAT EXHIBITS FOR WHICH $20,000 CASH PRIZES WILL BE GIVEN.

The great Kentucky State Fair is easily the biggest in the South, is only five weeks off, and on September 21st approaches the interest increases rapidly. The enterprising city of Owensboro is on the hush as it has not been before in years, and there is going to be a show that no citizen of Kentucky can afford to miss. Many of the State's exhibits for the St. Louis Exposition will first be seen at the State Fair at Owensboro next month, and the fact that many of the prize winning exhibits will be sent to the World's Fair next year will prove an additional incentive to everyone. Cash amounting to more than $20,000 will be distributed in prizes for all kinds of stock, farm and mineral products, household work and other exhibits.

Don't For The Wife.

Don't weep in the presence of your husband; weeping irritates him or makes him helpless, and if he is helpless he is provoked with himself.

Don't cling to him too tight; even an angel may be tiresome when one can never get out of the shadow of his wings.

Don't show him all the letters you get; he does not show his, so undoubtedly he believes in reciprocity.

Don't imagine that love makes up all his life. Give him plenty of rope; he may love you ever so much, but he doesn't like to feel the pull of apron strings.

Don't ask questions. He will tell you voluntarily what he wants to.

Don't explain. Explanations are tiresome. If you make mistakes, profit by them and say nothing. Take mishaps merrily. Men like women with a sense of humor.

Don't pout. If he forgets an engagement and apologizes, treat it as a joke and he will love you ten times more. Never take offense if it is possible to avoid it.

Don't nag. There is always a woman who doesn't. If you differ on things don't dispute them; agree to disagree.

Make him understand by the surest means at command that he is the finest man in the world, but never let him forget that there are others almost as fine.

Don't be jealous; give him the benefit of the doubt. He will secretly thank you. Be unselfish, even if he is not.

Don't shrink your responsibilities.—Ex.

Was Once a Resident of "Stringtown on the Pike."

A special from Cincinnati to the Courier-Journal says:

Mrs. Sophie Lloyd, eighty-three years old, mother of Prof. John Uri Lloyd, author and chemist, died of heart failure today at Prof. Lloyd's home, in Price Hill, a suburb. She had been failing in health for years, but was confined to her bed only a few months. Mrs. Lloyd was a daughter of Noah Webster, a descendant of the author of Webster's dictionary. She reared a family of three sons and a daughter at quaint "Stringtown on the Pike," made famous in Prof. Lloyd's famous book by that name. The sons are: Prof. Lloyd, N. Ashley Lloyd, former treasurer of the Cincinnati Baseball Club; O. G. Lloyd and Mrs. J. D. Nead, of Kansas City, Mo.

A colored preacher recently enlightened his congregation in regard to the conditions existing in the infernal regions in the following manner: "Brethren, I have been asked how hot is hell, an I will say, after givin' de subject considerable reflection, dat if yo' took all de wood in York State an' all de coal in Pennsylvania an' all de oil in de world, an' set all on fire, an' den took a man out ob hell an' put him in dat burnin' mess, he would freeze to de' befo' he's fairly lit! Dat's how hot is hell!" —Courier-Journal.

Illinois Central R. R.

OF INTEREST TO STOCKHOLDERS.

Free Transportation to Attend the Annual Meeting at Chicago.

Public notice is hereby given that the regular annual meeting of the stockholders of the Illinois Central Railroad Company will be held at its office in Chicago, Illinois, on Wednesday, October 21, 1903, at twelve o'clock noon.

To permit personal attendance at said meeting there will be issued to each holder of one or more shares of the capital stock of the Illinois Central Railroad Company as registered on the books of the Company at the close of business on Tuesday, September 29, 1903, who is of full age, a ticket entitling him or her, to travel free over the Company's lines from the station on the Illinois Central Railroad nearest to his or her registered address to Chicago and return, such ticket to be good for the journey to Chicago only during the four days immediately preceding, and the day of the meeting, and for the return journey from Chicago only on the day of the meeting, and the four days immediately following, when properly countermanded and stamped during business hours—that is to say, between 8:00 A. M. and 5:00 P. M.—in the hands of the Assistant Secretary, Mr. W. G. BROWN, in Chicago. Such ticket may be obtained by any holder of stock registered as above, on application, in writing, to the President of the Company in Chicago. Each application must state the full name and address of the stockholder exactly as given in his or her certificate of stock, together with the number and date of such certificate. No more than one person will be carried free in respect to one holding of stock as registered on the books of the Company.

A. G. HACKFASST, Secretary.

We want the news that happens here in Earlington and we also want our friends to help us obtain it. If you know anyone, telephone THE BEE; if you have a friend visiting you, telephone THE BEE; if your neighbor is sick, telephone THE BEE; if you know of anyone that has been or is going anywhere, telephone THE BEE; no matter what happens, we want to know about it. It may seem trivial to you, when in reality it is a good news item. Don't forget we have a good telephone and are always ready to answer it.

Consumption Threatened.

C. Unger, 211 Maple St., Champaign, Ill., writes: "I was troubled with a hacking cough for years and I thought I had consumption. I tried a great many remedies and for the cure of the cough I used for several months. I used one bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar. It cured me, and I have not been troubled since."
